

interiors

MAGAZINE

Georg Baehler, a Swiss-born master woodworker and the lead designer for Noir, in his Los Angeles studio. "I have an affinity for antiques of all sorts, and they are often the inspirations behind my designs," he says. "I'm always collecting unusual things at flea markets and thrift shops. I like things that are made the old-fashioned way, to last." noirfurniturela.com

PHOTO: JOHN ELLIS